

Our company is currently looking for

Cargo Reservation & Operation (m/f/d)

Frankfurt July. 01, 2026

China Airlines, based in Taiwan, operates an extensive global passenger and cargo network connecting Taiwan with major markets worldwide. Our Frankfurt office plays a key role in connecting the German market with our global cargo network.

Main duties

- Telephone support and care of existing customers in the office
- New customer acquisition by telephone
- Creation and management of statistics
- Freight reservation and space control
- Documentary handling of air freight shipments import/export
- Monitoring compliance with DGR regulations
- Coordination of air freight shipments in truck traffic
- Supervise ramp operations and ensure compliance with safety procedures
- Coordinate with airlines, ground handling agents, and airport authorities
- Monitor aircraft loading and unloading activities

Requirments

- Shift work flexibility
- Team player with good communication skill
- Airport working experience is preferred
- Enjoy selling and dealing with customers
- Good knowledge of German and English
- Confident telephone communication

We offer

- A secure job with great development opportunities
- A usual perk of an international airline
- 13th month salary and vacation pay

If this position appeals to you and matches your qualifications, we look forward to receiving your application in English to :

China Airlines Cargo Office
Personalabteilung
Cargo City Süd Geb.537 E 3.Etage
60549 Frankfurt am Main oder e-mail an julia.gu@china-airlines.com