

Can you be proactive, think outside the box, communicate well with Passengers, Service Partners and are you able to work under pressure? If so we'd like to hear from you.

Oman Air, the rapidly growing national carrier of the Sultanate of Oman is seeking to recruit suitable candidates for the following position:

Airport Services Agent

- Ideal candidate should have two years college diploma in related field in an hospitality and service function
- OR Secondary school with IATA specialized certificate in aviation
- Proficient in German and English (Reading, Written and Spoken)
- Have local knowledge of Frankfurt Airport
- Be able to coordinate with several service partners and other agencies in relation to flight activities
- Should possess excellent customer service skills
- Be able to display excellent time management and administrative skills including being computer literate
- Experience in load control, Sabre reservations and flight dispatch will be advantageous must not mandatory
- Have the legal right to live and work in Germany.

If you are interested in joining the Oman Air team at Frankfurt Airport, then please send in your CV in English to FRA.ASM@omanair.com addressed to the Regional Airport Services Manager (Europe) no later than 20th February 2020.